This Consent Order is entered into between the Commissioner of Business Oversight (Commissioner) and Homeward Residential, Inc. (the Parties) and is made with respect to the following facts:

Recitals

A. Homeward Residential, Inc. is a corporation formed and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware and authorized to conduct business in the State of California.

B. Homeward Residential, Inc. is a residential mortgage lender licensed by the Commissioner pursuant to the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act (CRMLA) (Fin. Code, § 5000 et seq.). Homeward Residential, Inc. has its principal place of business located at 16675

Addison Road, Addison, Texas 75001.

C. The Department of Business Oversight (DBO), through the Commissioner, has jurisdiction over the licensing and regulation of entities engaged in the business of mortgage lending and/or servicing pursuant to the CRMLA.

D. Pursuant to Financial Code section 50302, the Commissioner is required to examine the records, documents and affairs of each licensee under the CRMLA to ensure compliance with the law.

E. On or about April 3, 2017, the Commissioner commenced a routine regulatory examination of Homeward Residential, Inc. through DBO examination staff (2017 Exam). Homeward Residential, Inc. cooperated fully with all aspects of the 2017 Exam and produced all documents and other information in a timely manner.

F. As a result of the 2017 Exam, the Commissioner concluded that Homeward Residential, Inc. obtained signed per diem interest disclosure documents in which the disbursement day spaces were blank. Upon notification, Homeward Residential, Inc. immediately conducted a retrospective review and further represents to the DBO that no excess per diem interest was charged during that time as a result of any failure to fill in the disbursement day.

G. The Commissioner concluded that by obtaining signed per diem interest disclosure documents in which the disbursement day spaces were left blank, Homeward Residential, Inc. failed to keep records and documents that would properly enable the Commissioner to determine whether the licensee is in compliance with certain aspects of the CRMLA, in violation of Financial Code section 50314.

H. It is the intention and desire of the Parties to resolve this matter without the necessity of a hearing and/or other litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties are willing to resolve the matters cited herein as follows:
